Is It Conspiracy?

The One Question in the Central Strike.

MR. POWDERLY SAYS IT IS NOT.

He Makes a Reply to the Charge and Also Makes an Appeal to the Public—The Situation Unchanged and No Immediate Prospect of a Settlement.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Just before noon Mr. Powderly made the following statement relative to the charge of conspiracy, which, it is said, the railroad company is pressing:

"We have nothing to dread from the grand jury. We have violated no law; neither have we advised the violation of any law, either state or National. We have no objection to a fair and impartial investigation, and have, in fact, been seeking it. It is also true that we have been shadowed ever since our arrival here. They have watched our every movement, hoping to catch some incendiary remark. Whether the men were right or not in quitting work we do not say. That they had a right to do so is not disputed. They have refrained from violence, and so they have nothing to fear. While the Vanderbilt dynasty feel that they own the courts, we feel that they cannot shape justice to suit their own ends. If, however, such a thing can be done it is better to know it now than later."

Grand Chief Sweeney, of the Switchmen's Brotherhood, said that the counsel came here in the interest of harmony and tried to reach a friendly conclusion, and failing in this they have not up to the present time either endorsed or affirmed the stand taken by the Knights of Labor. "It was our determination to bring about a settlement, if it were possible, as we do not want the men to quit work, and by so doing make possible a National tie-up," said Mr. Sweeney. "Since we have been here there has positively been no unanimous change from the position assumed when we first arrived. Another thing, there has been no unanimous opinion formed by the executive council of the federation that the company were making an attack on our organizations. On the contrary, we have been divided on the subject. The reason for convening the supreme council was because the responsibility was too heavy for the four men of the executive board to shoulder."

Mr. Sweeney did not leave for Terre Haute as at first reported, but says he will be there on Saturday and attend the meeting of the supreme council.

At 1 o'clock the executive committee of District 246, Knights of Labor, arrived at the St. Cloud hotel and began a conference with the executive board. The object of the conference was said to be for the purpose of making all arrangements for the coming "tie-up," and to strengthen any weak places along the line.

At the Grand Central depot everything was quiet.

Powderly's Appeal.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Following is Mr. Powderly's appeal: "TO THE PEOPLE: For some time the management of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad have been discharging employees who have been active in labor affairs. It happens that all those who have been dismissed are members of the order of Knights of Labor and have at one time or another been officers of the order or have served on committees which waited on officials with a view to presenting grievances. These discharges became so frequent and were so clearly evidence of a settled purpose on the part of the company to disrupt and destroy the organization of the Knights of Labor on the Central system that the executive board of District Assembly No. 246, in which the Knights of Labor upon the system are enrolled, found it necessary to call a special meeting in New York to consider the situation."

"In the meantime the executive board having been apprised of the condition of affairs, sent one of its members, Mr. J. J. Holland, to New York with instructions to use all possible efforts to bring about an amicable adjustment of the difficulty. On his arrival in New York, after a conference with the representatives of the district assembly, in the course of which he obtained a full knowledge of the trouble from the standpoint of the men, waited upon Mr. H. Walter Webb, third vice president and acting manager of the company. Mr. Holland stated to Mr. Webb that he had called to endeavor to adjust the unpleasantness existing between the company and its Knights of Labor employees. Mr. Webb denied that there was any trouble between the company and its employees. Mr. Holland told him that he, as a member of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, had come at the request of the men, made through the organization to which they belonged, District Assembly 246."

"Mr. Webb frequently declared that he would not discuss the matter with anyone not an employee of the company and closed the interview. Finding all efforts to effect a peaceable settlement of their grievances impossible, and being convinced that it was only a question of time when they would one and all be discharged unless they forfeited their manhood and abandoned their privileges as citizens of a free country by renouncing their rights to join their fellows in organization calculated to protect their just rights without trenching upon those of others, the district executive board had no alternative but to order a strike, which they did."

"The public is already acquainted with the details of the affair. The earnest efforts of the general officers to secure a hearing for the discharged men were unavailing. On Wednesday morning Mr. John Devlin, of the general executive board, and myself waited on Mr. Toucey, general manager, and endeavored to have the matter arbitrated or investigated. Mr. Toucey was emphatic in his refusal. On the afternoon of that day Mr. Webb was visited and he reiterated what Mr. Toucey had said. It was suggested to him that interested parties hear and determine. It was also suggested that during the investigation the strike be declared off and the investigation proceeded with. That was refused."

"Then Mr. Webb refused my proposition that he sit with me in the presence of the men who were discharged and allow me to question them in his presence that I might know the facts of the case and be better able to arrive at a decision. Mr. Devlin then asked if he was to understand that Mr. Webb assumed that the public and the employees had no rights that he was bound to consider, and if he looked upon the matter simply as though the railroad was his own private property. If so, there was no need of saying anything further. Mr. Webb hesitated and then took refuge in silence. The public may have formed erroneous impressions of the position of the knights in the controversy. We do not pretend to dictate to the company that it shall not discharge employees, but in all fairness the discharged man should be told why he is missed."

"During the session of the state legislature, the Knights of Labor, of New York, were active in the passage of the weekly pay bill. The committee of the knights, representing the employees of the New York Central railroad, were met at Albany by the attorneys of the railway and brow-beaten, questioned and terrorized. Some of the members of that committee, who were at the time employed by the New York Central, were discharged without any given cause. There is not a doubt in the minds of the committee that these men were singled out for endeavoring to secure the passage of the above-mentioned law."

"After thoroughly investigating the causes which led to the strike, and after making every effort in their power to induce the company to arbitrate or submit to an investigation by impartial men the question at issue, the general executive board have by an unanimous vote determined to stand by the men who, whether their strike was opportune or not, had no alternative consistent with their manhood."

"I have no doubt that it is the determination of the management to destroy the organization of labor along the line of the New York Central, unless that organization subversively bonds its knee to the will of the Vanderbilts. During the controversy Messrs. Toucey and Webb stated and repeated the statement that the men were not discharged because they were Knights of Labor, and they expect the public to believe them, simply because they say so. Both of these gentlemen deny certain things in relation to the conversation with me, which both Mr. Devlin and myself are prepared to make affidavit to. I may therefore be excused if I am not prepared to accept as true beyond question any denial by them of statements made by men whose words should be of equal value with theirs."

"Everything that could in honor be done to terminate the strike on an honorable basis for the men was done, and the alternative of unconditional and absolute surrender on the part of the men or a protest against the tyranny of the officials of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad was presented to us. Under the circumstances it would be unmanly. It would be cowardly and unworthy of the sons of men whom two hemispheres struggled and died for the right of humanity. We did not seek the quarrel. The general executive board knew nothing of it until it was thrust upon them, and now that we have to face it we ask of the entire order of the Knights of Labor to come to our assistance with men to win the strike."

"We are not craving for sympathy. We are not in need of moral support. We have to fight a power which owes its lofty bearing to the wealth it has piled up from the labor of its employees. Untold millions are its command, and we want none to carry on the struggle. We ask all members of organized labor to come to our aid. We not only ask labor organizations, but we ask of the great public beyond our organization of labor to come to our relief. It is not because a few cents more a day, or some paltry concession to the men was required that this strike was precipitated. The real animus lies in the fact that our order has been struggling with the questions which concern the control of trusts, corporations and syndicates by the government of the people. The allied forces of the Knights of Labor and the Farmers' Alliance are marching on to Washington to secure legislation favorable to the whole people and secure the repeal of certain unjust laws. It is with the hope of turning our attention away from these matters that this warfare is made on the part of the allied forces."

"We are not the disorderly mob that the papers paint us. The orderly and law-abiding conduct of the men on strike has won the admiration of the public, and yet the best feelings of the community have been outraged by the introduction of an armed force under command of Robert Pinkerton, a man who holds no commission from the state or nation to recruit or arm men for military duty. And the interests of the state of New York required it there are many thousands of old veteran soldiers within her borders who faced death a quarter of a century ago. It was not necessary to call upon them and yet a hiring mob of the worst characters in the land have been quartered upon the people of New York to terrorize her citizens, to provoke men to anger and wrath, to shoot down those who asked for the right to be heard in their own behalf."

"The conduct of the men since the strike began has been most orderly and commendable, and until it closes no Knight of Labor will be found in an unlawful act of any kind. We are pledged to maintain the law. We will obey the legal commands of the state but not of the corporation which defies public opinion and has no regard for justice when dealing with its employees. Conciliation and arbitration can deal with the most intricate questions of dispute. The non-Christian attitude of the New York Central officials are best illustrated by the manner in which they violate the laws of the land through their agents."

"During this strike Robert Pinkerton is the agent of that railroad company. He advertises for men, they respond, and are hired without regard to qualifications or manhood. Apparently the brute alone is sought for, and such creatures as will do my deed of desperation best appreciated. Adolph Pallechek came to me Aug. 16 and made an affidavit that he was hired in New York by the New York Central railroad as a watchman and sent to Albany, and upon arriving there was handed a commission appointing him a deputy sheriff without expense to the county, and given a club and pistol and told to use them. Pallechek could scarcely speak the English language."

"I will be well to ask why blank commissions with the sheriff's name attached are placed at the disposal of Robert Pinkerton to be placed in the hands of ignorant men who believe that under this authority they have the right to shoot citizens to death. In order to test the case still further, and to learn if all citizens would receive the same treatment, I telegraphed Sheriff Toppan, of Rensselaer county, asking him if he would swear in 200 deputies to protect the lives of our members. He replied that he did not think the present situation would warrant the appointment."

"H. Walter Webb applauds the action of the Pinkertons in shooting, and says they did right. H. Walter Webb never did one stroke of work to secure the wealth he now abuses. It came to him by inheritance and he does not fully appreciate it, and regards it as something to be used for himself alone. The older Vanderbilt was a workman and knew something about the feelings of the man who toils. It was during his day that the record of the New York Central for generous treatment of workmen was made, and not under the present management."

"In conclusion Mr. Powderly says: 'The Knights of Labor hold themselves in readiness now and will continue to hold themselves ready to yield to the will of the public in the matter. The company on the other hand holds itself above and superior to public opinion. I would here ask the men still in the employ of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad whether it be not to their interest to stand by and support those who are striking to vindicate the common right to organize. The general executive board will conduct this contest with all of their ability within the law and without violence. To do this, we require funds, and that at once. Public spirited citizens, who believe in fair play, are asked to contribute to the liberty fund in aid of the striking employees of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad.'

"Send all contributions to John W. Hayes, 814 North Broad street, Philadelphia, Pa. T. V. POWDERLY, Grand Master Workman Knights of Labor."

VICTIMS OF THE WRECK.

Condition of Those That Were Injured on the Old Colony Railroad.

BOSTON, Aug. 22.—It is thought now the body of the victim of Tuesday's disaster remaining unidentified at Undertaker Hall's is that of a Worcester woman, as in the pocket of the deceased has been found an excursion ticket from that city.

The bodies of the members of the Fenley family who were killed have been taken to the Congregational chapel, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Fenley. The condition of those at the hospital, at Mrs. Lanes' and at Mrs. Carrs', who were considered as in danger of death, remains unchanged. No additional deaths are reported.

The official investigation into the accident was begun at the company's offices yesterday by the railroad commissioners. Chairman Crocker stated that the purpose of the investigation was not to ascertain liabilities or what claims the injured may have on the road, but to learn the exact cause of the accident and what can be done to protect the public in future.

General Manager Kendrick, of the Old Colony, was first called. In response to queries from Chairman Crocker, he said the wrecked train consisted of locomotive and nine cars and contained 319 passengers. Car 263, in which the fatalities occurred, had seventy passengers.

Several witnesses were sworn and Conductor Stendman of the ill-fated train took the stand. The important part of his testimony was that just before the accident, while looking from the baggage-car, he saw a gravel train approaching on the other track and a gang of laborers shift from that track to the one he was on; the engineer sounded the danger signal and the laborers jumped from the track. Witness then saw an upright object about three feet high directly between the rails of the track. He could not state its nature, but anticipated trouble from it and immediately hid himself flat on his face in the center of the car. The train jumped the track almost instantly, the baggage flew about the witness and he received several injuries. As soon as he could get out he sent a man back with a flag and then assisted in the work of rescue. He stated that the upright object was just where the laborers jumped from. The train was running thirty miles an hour, the usual speed at the point being thirty-three.

Some important testimony was given by the baggage-master and brakeman, J. T. Thomas, of Quincy, conductor of the gravel train referred to, heard the danger signal from Engineer Babcock on the Vineyard train. Witness saw "a track-jack," standing between the rails; could not tell whether or not it was clamped to the track. His train had gone some distance before he learned that the accident had happened; had no doubt the "jack" caused it.

The burglar opened the drawer with a chisel with which he appeared familiar. The operators are thought to be homo talent.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Three Laborers Killed and Thirteen Others Seriously Wounded.

BLICK ISLAND, Ill., Aug. 22.—There was a terrific explosion in the Standard cartridge factory yesterday afternoon in which three laborers were killed and thirteen others seriously wounded, three of whom will die. The explosion occurred in the packing room, but what caused it no one seems to know. No one was about the packing room at the time of the accident, and those who injured were working in the engineer's room.

All the machinery in the factory was destroyed and the windows of the houses for blocks around the building were broken. The fatally injured were sent to Chicago on a Rock Island train to be conveyed to the county hospital. One of the injured is reported to have died on the way to the hospital.

It is now estimated that the loss by the fire at Thousand Islands Thursday morning will reach $125,000. There were a number of persons in the hotel when it took fire. Only three or four persons received slight burns, but otherwise no one was hurt.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1890

"Last year," says the Louisville Times, "Great Britain's foreign trade reached the enormous amount of 743,000,000 pounds sterling, or $3,715,000,000. Then this beggarly little island off the coast of Europe has many-fold more exchanges with the world than the United States of America, whose people are made to 'protect' favored interests rather than to have the markets of the world open to them to buy in and to sell in."

DEMOCRATIC office-holders are generally found at their post of duty, and the present delegation in Congress from this State are no exception to the rule. The Courier-Journal's correspondent says: "Every Democratic member of the Kentucky delegation was in his seat Monday as is generally the case. No State in the Union has a delegation in Congress as faithful, regular and prompt in their attendance as the State of Kentucky. At one time Monday, Breckinridge, McCreary, Ellis, Caruth, Montgomery and Paynter were all gathered together consulting upon a matter of interest to their State."

At the annual State meeting of the Christian Women's Board of Missions in Lexington this week, the following officers were elected: Mrs. Annie Shouse, Lexington, President; Mrs. G. W. Yancy, First Vice President; Mrs. W. A. Broadhurst, Second Vice President; Miss Susie Sublett, Secretary; Mrs. L. Bradley, Treasurer. Board of Managers: Mrs. Dr. Gish, Hopkinsville; Mrs. N. W. Berry, of Paris; Mrs. Goodloe, Danville; Miss Powell, Frankfort; Mrs. Ashbrook, Cynthiana; Mrs. Munnell, Mrs. Bartholomew and Mrs. Hagerman, of Louisville; Mrs. Percy, Winchester, and Mrs. St. Clair, of Georgetown.

John Kernell's Latest Anecdote.
Before his departure for Cincinnati, and while surrounded by a number of friends in one of the Chestnut street hotels, John Kernell, the popular Philadelphia comedian, told his latest story: "Say, boys, did you hear of my experience in one of the Jersey towns last week? No? Well, I took a soap company up the road for a week, but we only played on Monday night. You see the people got onto us, and when the show opened we had a very slim house. We played to twelve coal-oil lamps, and the performance was so bad that eight of the lamps went out before the first act was over."—Philadelphia Press.

Jumping on Joe.
Joe Jones' sermon Wednesday night, (August 13th), "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap," was the most uncultured sermon that ever fell from the lips of man, and the language he used was not fit to be used anywhere, much less from the pulpit to an intelligent, respectable audience of ladies and gentlemen. We are of the opinion that this is the last of Joe at Deering camp ground, and if not, it ought to be, for people are tired of being insulted by such a thing as him.—Carlisle Mercury.

Keene.
One of the largest and most refined audiences ever at the opera house greeted Keene in his play of "Richard III" last night. The performance was splendid and delighted the audience. The company is composed of first-class artists throughout. The great tragedian fully sustained the high reputation he has earned. He will appear in "Richelieu" to-night and "Othello" to-morrow night. Don't fail to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Overly, of Flemingsburg, Mrs. Sharp, of Kansas City, and Miss Lina Shelton, of Brown County, O., are the guests of Mrs. Daniel Shafer at her home, "Walnut Bluff."

JOE FORSYTHE SHOT.

The Lenden Missile Penetrates the Right Lung Inflicting a Dangerous Wound.

Boley Price, the Man Who Did the Shooting, in Custody—Particulars of the Affray.

A shooting affray that resulted in the dangerous wounding of one of the participants occurred at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon between five and six o'clock.

As usual in all such affairs, several stories are current as to the commencement of the trouble. All agree, however, that the quarrel began between Joe Forsythe, of Millersburg, and Geo. B. Means, of this city, and that "Boley" Price, also of this city, then joined in the quarrel and fired the shot that will probably result in the death of Forsythe.

Mr. Means' story is that he was talking to his cousin Miss Means, of Lewis County, and her friend Miss Kearns, daughter of Blair Kearns, of Hillsboro. They were standing on the promenade near the main steps, when Forsythe who had approached and was near by made some highly insulting remark to the ladies. Means at once resented this, when Forsythe pulled a big pistol and dealt him a heavy blow on the head. Means was not armed, and started down the steps presumably to procure a weapon. He met Price before reaching the ground and told him what had taken place. Price had a pistol but refused to give it to Means. They returned to the scene of trouble and as they approached, Forsythe began shooting. The fire was returned by Price. Altogether there were five or six shots, but only one took effect. This penetrated Forsythe's right lung and passed through, lodging near the spine. Forsythe was brought to Dr. Owens' office at once, where his wound was dressed. He was resting a little easier this morning, but the wound is a very dangerous one, and the chances for his recovery are against him.

He was seen by a representative of the BULLETIN at seven o'clock this morning. He denied insulting the ladies with Mr. Means. "I'm the last man to insult any woman," was his remark. He says he was standing near Means, whom he did not know at the time, and that the talk commenced about horses. One word followed another until Means presently grabbed him by the collar. He shoved him away, when Means came at him with a knife. He struck him with a pistol as he approached, and Means then left. Presently, Price and Means returned, when the shooting occurred. He claims Price fired the first shot.

Price was arrested and lodged in jail. Forsythe is thirty-seven years of age, and is a brother of Polk Forsythe, of Paris.

For the Farmer and Stockman.
Twenty-three trotters and eight pacers have made records better than 2:20 this season. Of this number only five are by sires that would be called fashionable or that are making seasons at anything like a high fee for service, says an exchange.

The Delaware peach crop is a failure this year, and no mistake. The shipments have closed one month earlier than usual, and the total for the season over the Delaware railroad was one basket and two crates. The smallest season's shipments ever before recorded were 900 cars, and the largest 90,000 cars.—Enquirer.

Major Hale, State Treasurer, Captain James Blackburn, of Woodford County, and Colonel Warren, of Lincoln County, are among the distinguished gentlemen attending the fair and races. Captain Blackburn and Colonel Warren have entered the lists against Major Norman in the race for State Auditor.

Misses Sallie and Rosa O'Neil, Katie Golden and Mrs. McAvoy and daughter, Bessie, all of Newport, are visiting the Misses Hanley, of Market street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hooper, of Covington, Messrs. Dawson Sidwell, and Burt Fulton, of Ripley, and Mr. Harry Jones, a bicyclist of Ashland, are guests of Mr. Frank B. Miller, of the Fifth ward.

Major Norman, State Auditor, came down from Frankfort yesterday to attend the fair and races. He called on the BULLETIN in the afternoon. During his stay in Maysville, he will be the guest of Captain and Mrs. A. C. Respass. The Major is an out-and-out candidate for reelection.

"Woodland Farm," the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. David White, has been quite gay this week. Misses Allie and Mayme White had as guests Misses Rosa V. and Lizzie Anderson, of Cincinnati, and Miss Ella G. Downing and Miss Mary Hall. The young ladies enjoyed a visit during the week to Escalopia Springs, with Messrs. L. H. Long, Jr., J. R. Downing, D. Sam and A. P. White as escorts.

"A Ground-Hog Case."

A boy was digging with an old hoe, as if for dear life, in an embankment at the roadside. A passing traveler, seeing the energy and earnestness of the boy, called to him, "What are you doing there, my lad?" Without losing a flick or looking up, "Diggin' fur a groun' hog" was answered. "Well, you will never get him at that rate," said the man. The boy, working on, replied, "The preacher's a comin' to our house to dinner, an' we've got to hev meat, an' I must git that 'ar groun'-hog." This is the origin of "It's a ground-hog case."

Now it is a "ground-hog case" with us in the matter of getting rid of our SUMMER FOOTWEAR, without regard to prices, that we may re-invest our means in the largest variety of Fall and Winter goods ever seen in Maysville. In view of our small margins, our success depends upon the frequency with which we are enabled to turn over capital. This stock must go. Come and see it and you will be astonished at our prices. Orders by mail solicited. Goods sent on approval.

A RAINY DAY.

The Down-Pour Seriously Interferes with the Fair--No Races Yesterday--Premiums.

The Blue Ribbon Fair Company is playing in bad luck this year. The weather has been unfavorable all week.

Wednesday's showers were but the prelude to a heavy storm that prevailed nearly all day yesterday. The rain fell in torrents of great big drops during the forenoon, and there were frequent showers in the afternoon.

The grounds were as a natural result in a miserable condition. The track was too heavy to admit of any racing, and the great four-year-old trot, the 2:25 pace and the 2:21 trot on the programme for the day were postponed.

The crowd, which was a large one, all things considered, had to content itself with the show rings and with a look at some of the crack pacers and trotters which were led out and exhibited in the arena.

Hancke's Reed and Brass Band did much to make the day endurable, rendering many of the choicest selections.

The exhibition of stock in the arena consisted of harness and roadster stallions and saddle stallions.

The directors for the day were Messrs. P. P. Parker, E. H. Martin, W. S. Watson, W. S. Dudley, Jr. and W. L. Piper.

Following is a list of the premiums awarded, with the names of the winners of the blue ribbon:

Stallion, four years old and over, $20; D. Sam White, Mason County.
Stallion, three years and under four, $15; W. T. Berry, Lexington.
Stallion, two years old and under three, $10; J. P. Cassity, Fleming County.
Stallion, one year old and under two, $10; J. C. McClelland, Millersburg.
Saddle stallion, four years old and over, $20; Rowland & Lamb, Lexington.
Saddle stallion, three years old and under four, $15; W. R. Crichtfield, Germantown.
Saddle stallion, two years old and under three, $10; W. F. Berry, Lexington.
Saddle stallion, one year old and under two, $8; John Jackson, Augusta.

"Harness and road horse, mare or gelding, size, style and speed to be considered, a Frazier track cart valued at $80, given by R. H. Newell, agent, Maysville." This ring was warmly contested. Dick Young with Limestone finally secured the prize for J. C. Owens.

There were no entries for the premium offered for the handsomest turnout. It was not a good day for "fancy turnouts."

There are six races on the programme for to-day--2:21 trot, 4-year-old trot, 2:25 pace, 2-year-old trot, 2:35 trot and the special pace between Bud Doble and Minnie Cassell. The sunshine this morning brought out a big crowd, but the weather has changed and is still unfavorable. The heavy rain at 10:30 a. m. will keep the track in bad condition the rest of the day.

"For summer complaint," says Ben. L. Bear, a prominent druggist of Los Angeles, Cal., "I know of no remedy so sure and safe to use as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy." Mr. Bear is not alone in entertaining that opinion, as, wherever known, the remedy is praised by all who use it. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

The Railways.

The C. & O. pay car is on its monthly trip over the road.

General Superintendent Stevens, of the C. & O., has adopted the Wabash style of depots for way stations, and is building a number on the line of the C. & O. They are painted yellow, with white trimmings, and present a very attractive and neat appearance.--Louisville Post.

The low water is giving the boats trouble again. The Mink No. 2 grounded two barges at Manchester Island this week, sunk one at Augusta and sunk a stone and clayboat at Eight Mile.

Visitors to the Maysville fair, you are cordially invited to call and examine our stock of guns and sporting goods. It is the largest and best selected stock ever shown in Northeastern Kentucky.

FRANK OWENS HARDWARE COMPANY

About one hundred colored Knights Templar attended the annual session of their Grand Chapter and Grand Commandery at Lexington this week. Following is a list of the officers chosen: Horace Morris, Louisville, Most Eminent Grand High Priest; James D. Wase, Lexington, Right Eminent Deputy Grand High Priest; Thomas Kelley, Paris, Eminent Grand King; John Wilson, Maysville, Eminent Grand Scribe; Napoleon Bonaparte, Louisville, Grand Treasurer; George Taylor, Louisville, Grand Secretary.

It will not be a great while before the electric light plant is finished, and it may be well for parties who contemplate using it to bear in mind that it will invalidate their policies of fire insurance unless permission is first obtained from the company. Most companies require the "wires to be double coated with approved insulating material, and to have at least double the conducting capacity required by the generators, and to be protected where they enter the buildings by porcelain or hard rubber insulators, with cut-off outside. Lamp frames to be insulated, and to have globes closed at the bottom, and at the top by chimney with spark arresters where inflammable materials are exposed." The insurance agents will make the endorsement necessary, and there will be no charge to the policyholder so far as learned.

MINER'S AXIMS

In the race for business,
Shoes are our horses,
Price is our jockey,
And we ride to win.

And you know that means our horse is never going to be overweighted by his jockey; or, in plain words, our shoes are not going to be overweighted by Price.

We are in the race to win business.

We are winning it. That shows that our jockey is all right. There's nothing the matter with OUR PRICE.

But we sell GOOD shoes only?

Of course we do. And "good shoes bring a good price," say you. Right again! But a "good" price is not necessarily a high price or a big price, any more than a "good" man is necessarily a tall man, or a "good" woman a big woman. That's why our prices can be both "good" and small.

For that's what they are.

All the more reason why you should not pay a "good" price for a poor shoe, when you can get GOOD shoes at a low price at MINER'S.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

NOTHING STARTLING DONE.

Several Measures Pass the House While the Time of the Senate is Taken Up By Tariff Discussion—See News as Telegraphed from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—In the house yesterday the senate bill to change time of sessions of Federal courts in western Missouri and senate bills for bridges across the Mississippi between the mouth of the Missouri and the mouth of the Illinois were passed. The bill for adjustment of accounts under the eight-hour law was debated without final action, and the last bill was discussed further, and at 5 o'clock a recess was taken to 8 o'clock, the evening session being devoted to further debate on the bill.

In the senate, Mr. Plumb's resolution to prevent the sale of liquor in the senate wing of the capitol was debated, but finally went over and the tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Coke and Mr. Faulkner made set speeches against the bill. House amendments to senate bill to bridge the Mississippi (passed to-day) were agreed to.

Call for Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The following circular was issued from the treasury department at a late hour last night:

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 21, 1890.
In pursuance of the authority contained in Sections 3304 and 3609 of the revised statutes of the United States, public notice is hereby given that at any time before Sept. 1, 1890, the secretary of the treasury will receive at the treasury department, in the city of Washington, D. C., or at the office of any assistant treasurer of the United States, and will redeem at par four-and-a-half per cent. bonds of the acts of July 14, 1870, and Jan. 20, 1871, to an amount not exceeding twenty million of dollars, and on immediately after Sept. 1, 1890, will prepay to the owners of the bonds so received all the interest on said bonds to and including Aug. 31, 1891, without rebate of interest. The circular of Aug. 19, 1890, is hereby rescinded.
WILLIAM WINDOM,
Secretary.

It is explained at the treasury department that the slight delay in making the prepayment of interest on the twenty millions of bonds is made necessary by the fact that the law does not permit the anticipation of more than one year's interest.

Not Settled Yet.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The conference of Republican senators last night came to no conclusion in regard to the election bill. Another conference will be held. Meantime the Quay resolution will not come up in the senate.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The senate in secret session this afternoon confirmed the nomination of William G. Riley, of Virginia, to be consul at Puerto Bello, Venezuela.

PARK HOTEL BURNED.

Also, Twenty Cottages Among the Thousand Islands.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 22.—A special to The Times says: The Thousand Island Park hotel and a store on Thousand Island park, St. Lawrence river, burned yesterday morning. No lives were lost, but it is reported that some guests were injured.

The loss will reach $150,000. The fire caught from the stove in the kitchen of the hotel. The lack of hose with which to fight the fire was the cause of failure to check the flames when first discovered. About twenty buildings were destroyed.

Trouble About a Railroad.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A special to The World from Bristol, Tenn., says: Judge R. A. Richardson, of the court of appeals of Virginia, on Tuesday appointed John A. Bailey receiver of the South Atlantic and Ohio railroad. Before Bailey arrived all the rolling stock of the company was sent to the other end of the road and the wires cut. The books, papers and money of the company were securely locked up, and the officers went over the line into Tennessee to avoid service of process. Later the officers of the road secured an order from the United States court restraining Bailey from interfering with the property, and the road is still in the hands of the old management.

Bloodshed Will Decide.

LITTLE ROCK, Aug. 22.—Reports from Cherokee nation say that a big political row is in progress. The Cherokees are divided into two parties, known as the Downing and Nationals. The former element controls the local government and have renominated Hon. Joel B. Mayes for principal chief and Samuel Rowe for assistant. The Downing party nominated G. R. Benge and Rabbit Bunch. A new faction has suddenly sprung up and is backing ex-Chief Bushyhead and Samuel Smith. A hot fight is on and bloodshed is feared.

A Wild Threat.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 22.—Carlyle W. Harris, Edward P. Saylor and Frank W. Prescott, arrested in the raid on the Neptune club yesterday, were held for trial. Detective Thomas B. Joy, of New York, testified that liquor was sold and gambling was permitted in the rooms of the club. Harris makes the statement that several prominent officials of the town are members of the club, and threatens to give their names, etc.

A Dodge to Help Prices.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Threatened withdrawal of shipments of brick to this market by the Brick Manufacturers' association is already affecting the market, prices having gone up thirty-five cents per 1,000. It is predicted that the threatened embargo, which will begin to-morrow, will put up the price $1 per 1,000.

The Barrett-Slack Nuptials.

Many neighbors and friends responded to the invitations to the wedding of Miss Mamie Slack. By two o'clock "Social Hall" was well filled with the eager, good-natured crowd, awaiting the appearance of the marriage belle and beau. At half past two the preacher, Elder Joe Frank, stepped into the parlor and requested the friends to give way, and soon after the betrothed couple stood in the space made for them near the door. As the ceremony proceeded, even a careless observer could discover the pleasure perched on every brow. Satisfied with the personage of the man of her choice, and charmed with the exquisitely refined and appropriate ceremony being pronounced, there was a general heart-felling that all augured well for the future welfare of their good and dear friend. It is useless to add any eulogy of the bride. Her friends and acquaintances are to be found everywhere, and none knew her but to love her.

The only regret uttered was, that Mason County should lose one so fair and so useful. This was the regret of the crowd, while a half dozen bachelors backed against the wall, with sorrowful faces and bowed heads, said, amen. The bride and groom took French leave of their guests and departed to catch the F. F. V. at Maysville. The good wishes of all went with them. A collation for their friends was spread in the dining hall. All repaired thither and tasted on the good things before them. After a few hours' lulling, spent in social discourse, and admiration of the costly and well chosen presents to the bride, the gathering dispersed impressed with the impressed with the pleasure and fitness of this wedding occasion. August 20, 1890, by them, will ever be remembered. J. B. H.

Washington Post: "Young man," said a Congressman to a youth in the Capitol, I will tell you frankly that I can't help feeling some admiration for your powers of endurance." "In what way, sir?" was the inquiry, in a tone of pleasure. "I saw you stand and puff cigarette smoke in your own face for at least half an hour."
